

OLD BRADFORD VILLAGE PRESENTS

Battle of Old Bradford
Civil War Days 2016

Old Bradford Village Presents

SOUVENIRS and GIFTS

Items From Local Artists

- + Limited Edition Prints
- + Paintings
- + Quilts
- + Wood Crafts, and More

Dinner is Served

Is this picture OLD? No this was last May.
These Civil War Reenactors try to stay
authentic to the period in every way.

Is this picture OLD? No this was last May.
These Civil War Reenactors try to stay
authentic to the period in every way.

Morning next to the Little Brown Church

Morning Roll Call for both Blue and Gray

Visitors are gathering on the hill overlooking the battlefield.

No need to bring a chair. Rustic Stadium Seating has been provided.

Looks like everyone is ready!

Richard Pohorsky, our presenter, is ready to give us a play-by-play of the battle.

He adds additional comments about the guns, living conditions and what things were like during the war.

Troops are heading to battle.

The Union is lined up to start the battle. The Confederates are in the trees, Top Right

The battle has started!

The Confederates are coming out of the trees had have pushed the Union soldiers back.

Confederates lining up for a volley.
The Reverend in the foreground is heading to give last rights to a fallen soldier.

The Confederate Reanactors own this battle.
The next day the Union Reanactors took the field.

School Day: How LOUD is a real Canon??!
Must be LOUD. People are covering their ears.

School Day: Visiting the Medical Tent.

How did they treat battle wounds?

Come see the rest of our Historical Artifacts and Buildings from the area.

Old
Bradford
Pioneer Village
Museum

